Girl Found Slain; Six Under Arrest

Blood-Spattered Automobile Found Gives Clue To Crime

(International News Service)
WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 22.—A blood-stained, bullet-riddled automobile was found early today in Kingston, a suburb. Police believe it was the car in which the body of 19-year-old Jennie Visato of Old Forge was transported after she was slain.

Church goers found the girl's body in an open field near Pittston yesterday. It is believed she was slain elsewhere and the body taken to Pittston in an automobile.

Simultaneously with the finding of the car the arrest of two Pittston youths was announced. The prisoners, Charles Lattore, 20, and August Saluo, 18, were unable to give a satisfactory explanation of their activities, police said.

Today's arrests brought the number of prisoners to six, four having been arrested yesterday. The other prisoners include the girl's sweetheart, Patsy Berrazzela, with whom relatives reported she quarreled recently. Police are at a loss to account for the slayers' motive.

When you need a cook, maid or laundress, the most satisfactory way to find one is through a Classified ad. The better class of domestic help can be reached in this way. Those who read newspapers are obviously more desirable than those who do not or cannot.

King Benjamin Purnell Declares In Statement He Will Be Vindicated

From his bed in the administration building of the House of David, "King" Benjamin Purnell, the head of the Israelites, dictated the following exclusive statement to the International News Service and the Detroit Times.

By BENJAMIN PURNELL
(Copyright, 1926, by the International News Service and the Detroit Times.)

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Nov. 22.—I have lived the life of a celibate ever since I received this most holy faith, which was approximately 33 years ago. Since that time I have followed religiously the tenets of the faith of which I am the head, and not once in that time have I known a single woman, not even my beloved wife, Mary Purnell.

The stories of these disgruntled ex-members that I attacked them under the guise of a faithful religious rite are falsehoods. Money, the root of all evil, is behind these charges. It is blackmail, pure and simple.

The plot was hatched within the colony years ago by certain parties. Thwarted in their ambitions to assume a position of power in the House of David, they gathered a few of the weak-minded nit-wits

Fall-Doheny Trial Starts

Two Go On Trial On Charges Of Conspiring To Defraud Government

SMALL CROWD IN COURT FOR CASE

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. — A four-year-old trail of legal fending endede soon after 10 o'clock this morning in the small drab courtroom of Justice Hoehling as Albert B. Fall and Edward L. Doheny, both grey-haired, both nationally known, went on trial on charges of conspiracy to defraud the Government out of its naval oil reserves.

Small Crowd

A small but curious crowd was present when the gavel rapped for order at 10:05 a. m.

Fall and Doheny, central figures in the famous case, sat close together, flanked on either side by one of the greatest array of talent ever gathered in a Washington court. Two tables, running half the length of the room, were necessary for the lawyers.

There were no flourishes or dramatics attending the opening of the case.

District Attorney Peyton Gordon explained to the jury panel the nature of the case, and then began the laborious task of getting a jury.

Willie Stevens To Fight Charge Made By Simpson

Prosecutor In Hall-Mills Trial Infers Stevens Of Negro Blood

(International News Service)
SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 22.—Defense attorneys in the Hall-Mills case were understood to be preparing today to launch a vigorous counter-attack on the state's accusation by inferential questions that colored blood flows in the veins of Willie Stevens, one of the defendants.

The inferential charge was made by Prosecutor Alexander Simpson on Saturday when he was cross-examining Henry Stevens, who had taken the stand in his own defense.

Attorneys Indignant

Attorneys for the defense today made no secret of the fact that they were indignant over the suggestion contained in Simpson's questions. They produced the Stevens family Bible to refute the insinuation and may introduce the Bible as a defense exhibit. It reveals that William Carpender Stevens was the second child of Francis Kirby Stevens and Mary Noel Carpender, his wife, and that he was born in Aiken, S. C., March 13, 1872.

That would make Willie 54 years old. Henry, the Bible showed, is 57, he having been born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., November 20, 1869. Mrs. Hall is 52. She was born in Aiken on January 13, 1874.

Brownies Now Help Santa Claus Distribute Gifts

Modern Inventions Cause Santa Some Difficulties, But The Brownies Come To His Rescue—Santa Explains The Aurora Borealis

The Garden of Happiness,
Top Of The World.
North Pole.

My Dear Folks of New Castle, Pa.

Some cold, winter night your father will arrive home after a great scrunching of his feet in the snow and will say to your mother, "I saw the Aurora Borealis as I came in and the entire Northern skies were filled with the most beautiful lights."

If you ask your father what causes these lights he will tell you that they are caused by an electrical disturbance and that for many, many years they have been investigated by wise men and scientists who can give no real reason for their display. The trouble with these wise men and scientists is that they have been grown up for so long they have forgotten about Santa Claus and about the workshops in the Garden of Happiness at the Top of the World where Santa Claus is King.

I am going to let you in on a secret; these lights are reflections in the skies of the forges and furnaces of Santa Claus. Conditions have to be just right before you can see them but if you ever do and some little boy or girl asks you what it is all about you let them in on the secret.

You know I am going to arrive in New Castle on Friday, December 10 with my six reindeer, Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Donner and Blitzen and I am writing you this letter through the columns of the New Castle News so that you may know more about Santa Claus and the wonderful plans that have been made this year for your Christmas. When I get to New Castle I want you all to come and see me and Tautuk, the big-hearted Eskimo reindeer tender, who watches over and feeds the reindeer when I am at home and when I am not dashing over snow fields and glaciers and ice packs on my way around the world.

Brownies Help Santa

Many, many years ago almost everyone had wide-chimnied fireplaces in their homes and the only fuel used was wood. It was in those days that I personally drove the reindeer team across the roof ridge

Question Of American Policy Will Be Aired

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The whole broad question of American diplomatic policy toward the little republics of South and Central America is in for an airing when the senate convenes two weeks hence, it appeared today.

The present situation in Nicaragua, where Adolfo Diaz has been elevated to the presidency with the assistance of the state department and American warships and marines, is the reason therefor.

Senator Wheeler (D) of Montana already has announced he will introduce a resolution on the opening day demanding the recall of the warship and marines from Nicaragua "to allow the people of that country to set up a government of their own choosing." This move is certain to provoke a bitter debate, in which the Democrats and insurgents will assail the state department's policy in Nicaragua as "dollar diplomacy at its worst" and as "military autocracy".

On top of this, Senator Shipstead (F-L) of Minnesota today announced that the machinery for senatorial investigation already is at hand, the Ladd resolution which has been slumbering in the foreign relations committee for 18 months.

The resolution referred to was sponsored by the late Senator Ladd of North Dakota, and hearings were held by a sub-committee of the Foreign Relations committee in 1925. After Ladd's death it was dropped, but Shipstead said today the resolution was still operative and he intended to push it. Shipstead is a member of the committee.

"I am going to push the resolution for further inquiry into the loans made to Nicaragua and other

NO RESPONSE FROM MINERS

Six Entombed Miners Are Feared To Be Dead—In Mine Nearly Week

(International News Service)
HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 22. — A second bore hole was being drilled today in an effort to locate the six men entombed since last Tuesday in the Tomhicken Colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company near here.

Rescue workers failed to get any response from the miners when the four inch hole was sunk to high breasts of the mine, where it was thought five of the victims may have sought refuge from water which flooded the mine. If they are in the high breasts, mine officials said, they are either dead or too weak from hunger and thirst to give any signal.

POLICE OFFICER SHOOTS MAN AFTER BEING ATTACKED

Bronich Taken To Hospital.

Bronich, after being wounded, went probably a hundred feet, then dropped to the street in front of the No. 5 fire department on Scioto street, where he was picked up by Officers Lynch and Longstreth and removed to the New Castle hospital in the city patrol wagon. He died a short time after being admitted to the hospital.

The recovery of Officer Reynolds from the razor wound, which went clear through the flesh to the jawbone, is indicated, although in an effort to be sure of no complications, an X-ray was taken this morning to determine the possible presence of steel from the razor blade, a considerable portion of which was found in the wound by the attending physicians, Dr. C. C. Dickey and Dr. Z. N. Stutz.

In slashing the officer with the razor, Bronich was evidently seeking to seriously wound him, as one slash went clear through the winter overcoat, his uniform coat and other clothing, leaving a red mark on the body of the officer, where the razor blade scored the skin but did not cut.

Occurs on South Side.

The cutting of Officer Reynolds and [illegible] shooting of the crazed Paul Bronich followed a number of unusual incidents along Long avenue, which indicate the mental condition of the dead man.

The wound of Officer Reynolds was of such a serious nature that it required more than 30 stitches to sew up the wound. A majority of the stitches had to be placed inside the mouth. While every effort has been made to prevent a scar, it is probable that the officer will always bear the mark of his encounter with Bronich.

According to data secured by the police, Bronich had been exhibiting the tendencies of a demented person for some time. He had been employed in the roll turning department of the Shenango works of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company for something like four years. Recently he had been exhibiting a tendency which made some of his fellow workmen fearful and a week last Friday he was laid off, with the understanding that he could return when he had recovered his health. His conduct previous to this condition of affairs had been exemplary.

Since then his peculiar mental condition had become more pronounced. It appeared to have taken a peculiar religious tendency.

Acts in Strange Manner.

According to the police investigation, on Saturday afternoon he visited a number of places just previous to the incident that resulted in his death, acting in a very strange manner.

Among the places visited were the store of Kerber & Winick, the jewelry store of Jack Frank, 142 East Long avenue, and the office of Dr. Z. N. Stutz, 308 East Long avenue, who with other physicians, have had him under observance.

Kerber & Winick store he acted strangely and then walked out. At the Frank jewelry store he asked to see some rings, apparently seeking some special stone. The rings were shown him, and one which Mr. Frank said was gold, led to the question by Bronich "Is it solid gold?" At the office of Dr. Stutz, he opened the door. The doctor was busy at his desk, and turned around as Bronich said: "How can I make some easy money?" or something to that effect. He did not await the answer of the doctor but whirled out closing the door. It was but a few minutes after this last incident that the cutting and shooting occurred.

Officer Sights Him.

Jack Frank, aroused by the strange behavior of Bronich while in his store, followed him out, seeking the officer on the beat. Mr. Frank came on Officer Frank Reynolds on West Long avenue, near Scioto street. He was in the act of explaining the situation when he looked up and saw Bronich and remarked: "There he is now."

Officer Reynolds at once walked over to Bronich and began to question him. He asked his name and where he lived.

The officer noticed Bronich place his hand in his pocket. As a matter of precaution against possible weapons, the officer pulled [illegible] out of the pocket and continued his quest'oning. Bronich again put his hand in the pocket and the officer pulling it out, put his own in to determine the reason for Bronich's actions.

Bronich then struck the officer on the jaw with his fist and pushed him back. The officer then brought his mace into action and knocked him down.

Slashes With Razor.

Turning to Jack Frank, Officer Reynolds told him to call the wagon. As Frank left to do this Officer Reynolds saw Bronich getting up. He allowed him to get up and when Bronich started off the officer grabbed him. Bronich wheeled about, razor in hand, and began slashing at the officer with it. The officer attempted to use his mace effectively to subdue Bronich, hitting him several times on the head, but Bronich with the cunning and gigantic strength of an insane person, withstood the blows and finally managed to slash the officer on the face and across the front of his clothing.

The crowd witnessing the battle between the officer and Bronich had grown to probably a hundred by this time. For the most part they were dazed and seemed unable to realize the seriousness of the affair, until they saw the razor in action, when several called out to the officer to use his gun.

Officer Reynolds was heard to reply: "No, the man's crazy." As the officer was cut on the cheek, he called out as he placed his hand to his face, "Help, me boys." Unarmed, the bystanders were held at bay by the wild slashing of the razor by Bronich.

Officer Shoots.

Bronich and the officer were on Scioto street by this time. Officer Reynolds, bleeding profusely and in terrible agony, told Bronich to stop, as he was still waving the bloody razor. Bronich did not stop and Officer Reynolds fired three times, each shot hitting Bronich. As the last shot was fired, Officer Reynolds dropped in a faint.

In spite of the wounds, Bronich continued down the street fully a hundred feet, dropping over in front of the fire department building. He still had the razor in his right hand and Archie Slovonsky, one of the firemen, rushed over and placed his foot on the razor, holding that position until other officers arrived.

Jack Wachs, who works in a shoe store at 26 West Long avenue, saw the start of the incident. Calling to the officer to use his gun, he rushed into the store of his father nearby and sought something to use as a weapon in assisting the officer. When he returned to the scene the cutting and shooting had occurred. Rushing to a nearby car, the ownership of which he did not know, Wachs placed the injured officer in it and rushed him to the New Castle hospital, with the assistantance of other bystanders.

When the first call was received at police staion by Sergeant Jones it was merely for the wagon. Officers Lynch and Longstreth were sent to West Long avenue with the regular patrol wagon. Almost instantly there was a second call and then a third call to the effect that Officer Reynolds was being killed. The police scouting car was then dispatched with Officers Horner, Nelson, Elder and Howard Phillips passing the patrol on the way.

Taken to Hospital.

On the arrival of the latter car, Reynolds had already been removed. Lynch and Longstreth picked up Bronich and removed him to the hospital, where he died. These officers then returned to the scene and assisted in getting witnesses and information, as did Officer Jack Young.

The officers found the sentiment of the people much in favor of the officer, they state.

Jack Wachs, Frank Durst, E. S. Newman, Paul Jerkovich and others have made statements concerning the incident and a number state that they urged the officer to use his gun before he did.

A post mortem examination was made Saturday evening by Dr. John Foster at the Offutt funeral parlors on North Mercer street, to which the body of Bronich was removed.

Coroner J. P. Caldwell was called to the hospital immediately following the shooting and is making an investigation. He found that Bronich had been residing with Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of 507 Galbreath avenue. He had apparently been an ordinary type of person until his mental condition became aggravated recently.

He was born in Oklaj, Jugo-Slavia, formerly a part of Austria, October 30, 1901. He landed in this country March 21, 1921. His parents, who reside in Oklaj, survive him. No near relatives are known to be residing in this country unless it is an uncle in Farrell. He is said to have been of a saving disposition and to have had some money. As yet no person has claimed the body, which is at the Offutt funeral parlors.

Coroner Caldwell will hold an inquest as soon as Officer Reynolds is able to attend. The funeral will probably be held Wednesday morning, but the time and place will be announced later.

Officer Frank Reynolds has been a member of the police force for eight years and in that time his record for exemplary conduct and the use of judgment in following the duties of his occupation has been excellent. In his entire period of service there has never been one complaint made concerning his actions as an officer.

and slipped down the chimney to fill the stockings of the good little girls and boys on Christmas Eve.

Now, however, so many people burn gas, or use coal furnaces and hot water or steam radiator systems that it has become almost impossible for me to get into the living rooms of all the homes in New Castle and so for a long, long time I have taken several Brownies with me to help deliver the books, dolls, candy and horns. You know Brownies are very small people and I have even known a young Brownie to crawl through a key hole and with the aid of a magic shoe horn drawn a sled and a pair of skates through with him.

Brownies can crawl up Christmas trees to the tip-top branch and if you listen close on Christmas Eve you may accidentally hear them talking to themselves, whispering to me and saying nice Brownie-like things to the dog and cat.

A funny thing too, is that dogs, cats, cows and sheep and even roosters can talk with Brownies Christmas Eve but you must never purposely try to listen to them because it makes a Brownie cold all over to have you try to hear him talk. And you know if a Brownie was to get too cold he might freeze his ears.

Eskimos Will Make Trip

It is not very long now until I start south for New Castle with my reindeer, Mr. and Mrs. Tautuk and little baby Tautuk, who live in an Igloo made of ice and who eat walrus blubber and fish. This will be the first time Tautuk and his family have ever been down in your land where you have summer and winter and you will have a lot of fun watching him try out all the foods that are on our table each day, and which are new to them. I wonder what Tautuk will do with an orange and whether or not he will like ice cream. You know it is so cold up at the Top of the World that ice cream freezes too solid to eat. If mamma reads this to you tell her not to forget that she is to take you to see Santa Claus and his helpers and his reindeer. I will write you another letter tomorrow and tell you about the place where all the toys are made. I intended to do this today but I thought you would want to know about the Northern Lights and the Brownies and the time I have been having getting down these new-fangled chimnies.

With lots of love,
SANTA CLAUS.

STEVENS' COOK TESTIFIES FOR ACCUSED MAN

"Did you wash his fishing clothes?"

"I did."

She said she got his lunch and supper on Friday.

Mrs. Evanson said she was over at Stevens' home on Saturday, too.

Cross-Examination

Prosecutor Alexander Simpson then took the witness over for cross-examination.

"Did anybody talk to you about this case before you took the stand?"

"No."

Simpson walked up close to the witness stand shouted:

"You mean to say that although Henry Stevens is charged with murder, no one mentioned it to you?"

"Yes", she replied.

Simpson asked her to tell him what she gave Henry Stevens to eat that six o'clock supper.

She couldn't remember.

The prosecutor asked her what time she saw Stevens Friday morning.

"About nine o'clock—he was in his room."

Mrs. Marie Demartst, a witness for the state, had testified Stevens was in New Brunswick this particular Friday morning.

Simpson, over vigorous objections of the defense, tried to puzzle the witness regarding dates. She couldn't remember whether or not Stevens was home on the Thursday before September 14, 1922. She could not remember if it had rained on Thursday, Sept. 14, 1922.

Simpson asked Mrs. Evanson if she had been in hiding "since August, this year". The witness said she didn't know anything about that, but she was away sick for two weeks.

"Have the Stevens family in any way aided in educating and caring for you since September 14, 1922?"

"No", she replied.

Mrs Evanson shrank under Simpson's volley of questions She had to be prodded to answer some of the questions.

Howard Price was called next. He was in the paint business in Philadelphia and had a summer home in Lavalette.

Price testified that on the night of September 14, 1922, he saw Henry Stevens on the beach at Lavallette at 9:55 p. m.

She was excused and her husband, Arthur Applegate, a carpenter and fisherman, was called.

Applegate testified that Henry Stevens was on the beach on the night of September 14, 1926. He (Applegate) had some trouble catching fish that evening and Stevens gave him a "lucky hook."

Applegate was asked if he saw Stevens again that evening.

"Yes, about 10 o'clock as I was leaving the beach."

Simpson took the witness for cross examination.

"Did you say under oath that the fish was caught on Friday?'

"I said the fish were caught on the night of the murder."

Applegate said he couldn't remember testimony he gave before the grand jury in Sepember 1926.

"Didn't you tell the grand jury that you couldn't remember when you caught the bluefish—whether it was on the 14th or 15th, and didn't private detectives put the idea of the 14th in your mind?" Simpson shouted.

No Applegate roared back.

Simpson turned to an assistant and said: "Give me that affidavit." Taking it to the witness he demanded:

"Didn't you sign this affidavit saying you caught the bluefish on Friday night?'

The result the world now knows.

The remainder of these cohorts swooped down on me with their suits and false, ugly charges, and such a hue and cry was raised in the press of the nation that I knew I could not secure a fair trial then, so I fled four years ago.

The allegations that I despoiled these former girl members of the colony by telling them it was a holy, religious rite whereby I gained strength and they gained an added star in their crown is bosh.

My faith, based on the holy scriptures, opposes even a man and wife living together until after they have reached a stage where they are spiritually above the temptations of the flesh.

I have followed this tenet religiously. Since that day my wife, Mary, and I, received the vision we have lived together as a brother and sister. As God is my judge I have known no woman since.

It is written in the Bible that we shall be visited by such persecutions as I am now suffering, just before the judgment day, when all but the faithful-elect shall die, and I have been expecting this for years, but I shall be vindicated.

Appeal Denied In Railroad Case

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Federal Judge Evan A. Evans today denied an appeal from Judge Wilkerson's order setting a price on the bankrupt Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, refusing the Erwin C. Jameson committee the right to intervene in the receivership.

While today's move cleared the way for an appeal to the U. S. supreme court, it did not interfere with the scheduled sale today in Butte, Mont.

Traveling in A Circle.

In his book "Roughing it" Mark Twain tells of being lost in a storm and—without knowing it—of traveling for hours in a circle and finally learning that all the while he had been but a very short distance from camp and friends.

People who rely on self diagnosis and self medication also very often travel in circles in that they make no headway until their course is properly directed by a physician.

You can best travel the road to health when your doctor acts as your guide.

As we specialize in prescription work we are always prepared and ready to give real service in that respect.

EMPLOYMENT

WE hear many things just now about the state and trend of business, good, bad, and indifferent. Big business is busier than ever feeling its own pulse and looking at its tongue in the glass. Here is what seems to be "the low down" on the matter:

The Department of Labor reports that, except for a seasonable decline in building operations, labor in the United States was well employed in October, and that "for the tenth consecutive month the returns showed a higher number of workers employed in selected manufacturing industries and a higher pay roll total."

Employment increased in the big coal mining, textile manufacturing and boot and shoe industries. In the soft coal industry, which has long suffered from dulness, there is an actual shortage of miners.

When there are more men working right now, at better pay, than at any previous time in this prosperous year, the situation doesn't seem to call for much worry.

MANY WILL BENEFIT

AS in past years, many New Castle folks who had the foresight to join the Christmas Savings Clubs of the various banks are soon going to reap the benefit of their thrift.

Although the clubs do not officially close for about two weeks advance estimates, as published in The News, indicate that close to $350,000 will be disbursed to members.

And while a generous portion of this amount will be expended for Yuletide gifts, past experience has shown that much of it will be added to the savings accounts of those who have realized the excellence of this systematic plan of guarding against a "rainy day."

During the World War the importance of thrift was stressed as never before. The lesson has been taken to heart even in time of peace and these Christfas Savings Clubs have helped in no small measure to prove just what can be accomplished by those who really have a desire to help themselves.

PREPARING FOR CONGRESS SESSION

OUR statesmen—full-fledged and near—are filtering into Washington for the December 6 meeting of congress. They will be there in force as soon as the Thanksgiving turkey has been disposed of.

In the meantime the Ways and Means and the Appropriations Committees of the house have got into action and the president is assembling material for his annual message.

The former committee has to do with the raising of revenue, the latter with its dispensation. But the work of Chairman Madden's colleagues of the appropriations body is rendered much easier these days because they have before them the figures compiled in the budget. The closer those figures are stuck to, the better off is the taxpayer. For the budget admits of no extravagance and, in compliance with the policy of the Coolidge administration, keeps expenditures within bounds.

Were he so disposed, the president could cover a wide field in the document he will send or read to congress. Farm relief, Muscle Shoals, waterways, shipping, immigration, reclamation, railroad consolidation—there are topics without number of the controversial type. But there can't be controversy in the few weeks embraced between December 6 and March 4, with several days out for the Christmas and New Year's period. So presumably the president will restrict his recommendations in conformity with the briefness of the time allowed by law. He will endeavor to avoid the calling of an extra session. On the other hand, his Democratic opponents will seek to make one necessary. Such is politics.

THE BOY AND STRANGERS

I'll run the chance for kindness' sake
On promises that strangers make;
Sometimes I'll cash a check, although
The worth of it I do not know;
But there's one risk I will not run—
I'll trust no stranger with my son.

Strangers may take my gold and flee,
And only slight the loss will be;
Liars and tricksters may deceive,
And not for long o'er that I'll grieve,
But I'll not risk my boy to go
With people that I do not know.

I have a task that's wholly mine,
A care I cannot well resign.
Others, perhaps, would do it well,
But that I cannot surely tell;
And fearful lest he go astray,
I'll teach my boy from day to day.

I'll be his father to the end,
I'll be his father and his friend;
What he would learn of life I'll teach,
I'll stay always within his reach,
I owe a duty to my son,
And I shall see that it is done.

No smooth-voiced stranger shall come in
And lead my boy to shame and sin,
Nor shall I send him out to play
With all who chance to come his way,
With money many a risk I'll run.
But strangers cannot have my son.

Sun sets tonight 4:37. Sun rises tomorrow 6:56.

The use of cosmetics makes a girl the picture of health.

If some of those chaps down South who cannot make ends meet raising cotton would confine their efforts to raising turkeys, they might make a lot of money.

A great many people who should never be allowed to vote at an election are the ones who are always there to cast their ballot. That's one reason we don't always get the best candidates elected.

Being crooked never gets a person anywhere—and neither does a merry-go-round.

In every city in which the queen of Roumania visited there was a frantic effort to get out all the plug hats and some of ancient vintage, of course. When a man has a plug hat he thinks he ought to wear it when there is occasion for it, whether it is up-to-date or not, and very few know when a stovepipe hat is up-to-date. Every man seemed to want to high hat the queen.

If you wish to discover how drunk or sober a man is, see what type of woman he prefers.

Nothing will make a man quite so mad as to have his wife tell him that the folks always told her that she married beneath her. The fight is on right then, especially if the man thinks the wife's folks are not much.

A man never knows who his enemies are, but his creditors make themselves known every 60 or 90 days.

This week we will have a five-day work week in quite a few lines of business, and as usual it will be a bum week.

Trying to decide whether to use diplomacy or force in business is like making up one's mind whether it's a brassie or niblick shot.

The only talent a lot of men have for business is other people's.

Christmas savings funds should be spent in New Castle, where the money was earned. A dollar spent out of town is gone forever. If spent in this city you get a chance at getting it back some time. Be a patriot and patronize home merchants and home industries.

We heard a man say yesterday that many people who go to church carry temptation's phone number in the back of their Bible. We might add also that some who do not go to church know the number so well they do not have to write it down anywhere.

The quickest way to find a gas leak is to hunt it with a lighted match. And the hospital and the morgue come right next.

It is said that men are going to wear whiskers again. They've simply got to do something to identify their sex.

A Chicago girl dislocated her knee doing the Charleston. Generally when girls go in for the Charleston it's the men's necks that are dislocated.

All the cats in Holbrook, Washington county, have been rounded up and killed because a cat bit a man. Perhaps it was only a wild cat and it's too bad all the pussies had to die just for one wild act on the part of an unscrupulous kitten.

The Hints and Dints man has it from a stylish modiste that with the girls it is a case of the survival of the fittest.

Men make short cuts to save time so they will have more of it to waste when they get there.

Every time we hear of some bird claiming that he comes from a family of fighters we feel like kidding him because he can't get into the Sons of the American Revolution.

A taxi driver in New York nearly had heart failure a few days ago when he found out that a woman who had been in his bus long enough to run up a bill of nine dollars had committed suicide while he was carting her around. It may be that she could not stand looking at the counting machine they have on taxicabs to get the money.

We heard a fat fellow order corned beef and cabbage in a restaurant a few days ago and the waiter replied: "You said a mouthful". And that was about all he got counting the beef.

When each side tries to get the better of the other side and can't, they call it a deadlock.

The Philadelphia Centennial will be in debt about five million dollars when it is over. Well, we did all we could to boost it, and even paid our way into it when we were there when we could have asked for comps and bummed our way in. It was and is worth seeing by every Pennsylvanian. Of course, there is not much chance of getting stung by those vicious mosquitoes at the Navy Yard this time of the year. The skeeters they have there would be a good substitute for the navy when they are real hungry. That is one thing we will never forget about the Centennial, also.

TODAY'S STORYETTE

Here's Florida's latest story, which seems to give a slight idea of how the financial problem is solved down there.

A resident of Miami had a valuable dog he wished to sell. So he inserted an advertisement in one of the local newspapers. The next day a prospective customer called.

"I like the dog", the man said, looking the canine over carefully. "What do you want for it?"

"One hundred thousand dollars", came the reply.

"One hundred thousand dollars!" exclaimed the prospect. "Can it be there is a dog worth that amount?"

"Oh, yes", replied the owner. "This dog has a pedigree that reaches from here to Cuba."

"Too much money for me to pay", the caller said regretfully. And he departed.

A few days later the prospective customer again met the owner of the dog. It was a chance meeting on the street.

"Sold your dog yet?" inquired the man who had thought of buying.

"Oh, yes", the owner said nonchalantly. "I sold it yesterday."

"Did you get $100,000 for it?" came the inquiry.

"Yes, indeed", said the owner. "That is, you might say I did, for I traded the dog for two $50,000 cats."

This country seems to have incurred a lot of unpopularity in going to war; but probably we'd have a great deal more if we had stayed out of it, but that's the question.

A woman in Vienna who is worth nigh onto a million says she has been selling lottery tickets for 50 years. Now we'd like to hear the testimony of some of the people who have been buying the lottery tickets.

It is hardly very wise statecraft to boast of our treasury surplus while Queen Marie is in the country. She might suggest lending it to Roumania.

A red necktie is like a cornet solo. It may be pretty, but it offends the senses.

Here is one cheering reflection: no newspaper is large enough to print a list of the happily married.

Secretary Mellon says that protection is good for us, and England takes his suggestion to heart by continuing the price-raising restrictions on rubber.

A traveling Outlooker reports that oyster stews cost but 35 cents in Pittsburgh, against 60 cents in New York. Yet the Smoky City is nearly 500 miles from the bivalve region, which is right at the back door of New York City. Traveling evidently makes the oyster cheaper.

Did anyone ever see an amateur theatrical with only five persons in the cast? No, and probably no one ever will. There wouldn't be enough relatives to fill the hall.

A well-known woman says that when she can't sleep at night she counts her past loves. And we wonder if this woman thinks of her old loves as so many sheep and counts them until she goes to sleep.

Queen Marie says that Princess Ileana must marry for love alone. That's what her big brother, Carol, did, and just look what happened to him!

The Houston Chamber of Commerce has figures that say that women wear more clothes than men. The Chamber of Commerce statisticians must have been deceived by their wives' bills.

Man needs nerve. He can't use the purchase of a handkerchief as an excuse to try on seven suits.

Why Yale should hire new professors when her line and backfield need strengthening is another of the autumnal mysteries.

Planting trees along the roads is a good idea if the horticulturists can develop a tree with a bumper.

Women have not yet become masculine enough to carry handkerchiefs for blow instead of merely show.

That there is still ample field for the sale of radios is shown quite clearly by the great number of calls that come into The News office every Saturday evening for the results of the Saturday games. A good many thousand people call The News every week-end for their favorite team's score and they are given accommodation.

We don't know how they do it, and we doubt if they can explain themselves, and we would like to know and so would the man world at large, and that is how the girls keep warm below where the coat comes in these days when the wind has so much sting to it.

There are many excellent cooking devices, but nothing has been done about the invention of an automatic cook who is always on time.

The best thing about these games of film football is that the home team usually wins.

The London Times and the Paris Temps agree that President Coolidge's Armistice Day speech "makes active and permanent collaboration between Europe and the United States seem impossible".

That is most encouraging to Americans that mean to look after their own business, while Europe attends to hers.

All's well that ends well, the world court foolishness seems to be dead, and that back door of the League of Nations closed up.

California's association of editors is told "a newspaper can be run without crime news". Of course it can. Salad could be run without oil, vinegar, salt or pepper, but it would not be much of a salad.

You can't tell the news of the United States without telling about crime, from the stealing of a naval oil reserve to the use of a flying machine and bombs, by the Shelton gang of bootleggers fighting the Birger gang in Illinois.

To take the Aimee Semple-McPherson story from the people of Los Angeles would be like taking candy from a child at Christmas, and the whole country would miss the Hall-Mills case, with its jealousy, shooting, mystery and mutilation after death. Crime is a thing that we attend to thoroughly. It is part of our history, a measure of our civilization, as it has been of all civilizations. It is news. "Jones and Smith sat peaceably side by side" is not news.

"Jones leaned over and bit off Smith's ear" is news.

The use of moving pictures in schools might easily cut the school day to two hours.

George Eastman of Rochester is developing fifty educational pictures for experiment in public schools, a most useful work.

But too much stress is laid upon pictures teaching science and geography. The first thing to teach with motion pictures is history.

With a good moving picture you could teach a child in 20 minutes more about the life of Lincoln than the average high school graduate knows.

Science, geography, natural history, geology, everything will be taught with pictures. But first should come the history of men. The proper study of mankind is man.

Show Alexander attacking the line of Persian elephants, Socrates in battle walking barefoot through the snow, Archimedes working out his problem in the sunshine, when the soldier struck him dead, Napoleon crowning himself emperor, Peter the Great working as a ship yard mechanic. Beethoven conducting his symphony when stone deaf by watching the bow of the first violin, Anne Boleyn losing her pretty head, Galileo on his knees forced to deny the magnificent truths that he had given to the world. History, science and all knowledge, in reality, a series of pictures, and by pictures we should teach them, astronomy especially. Only pictures can make it clear and interesting to the unimaginative mind.

The immediate cause of Uncle Joe Cannon's death was a cold. Old men and women, take notice. Colds are deadly, weakening every one of the billions of cells that make up the body, lowering the power of resistance, bringing death.

Japan's emperor, Yoshihito, is dying, takes only liquid foods, and doctors have silenced his radio. Being related to the sun and moon means little if you can't eat or hear music.

The worst is that Japanese politeness requires many to suffer when a great one suffers. The mayor of Hayama, where the mikado lives, orders geisha girls to stop their dancing.

In Day's News

Cyrus E. Dallin, who will observe his 65th birthday anniversary today at his home in Arlington, Mass., is one of the most distinctively national sculptors that the United States has produced. The more conventional output of his art is to be found in his figures in the library of congress at Washington, and in his designs for soldiers' monuments at Syracuse, N. Y., and Hanover, Pa. His most enduring and strikingly individual contribution to his people's art will prove to be statues like "The Medicine Man" in Fairmount park, Philadelphia; "The Appeal ot the Great Spirit", which stands before the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, and "The Indian Hunter," in his home town of Arlington. In these works Mr. Dallin has done justice to the Red Indian of the plains and valleys of the far west, among whom he grew up in Utah.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

HAPPINESS

One trouble with telling people how to be happy is that everybody does not understand just what happiness means.

Happiness to one man may not be happiness to another.

It is happiness to a swine to find a trough full of swill, and there are human beings whose idea of happiness is plenty to eat.

But most human beings have a different kind of nature, and the mere satisfying of hunger does not make them happy.

In fact happiness seems to be the fulfillment of a desire, and of course what happiness is depends on what chances to be your desire.

A person shipwrecked on a raft in mid-ocean, or a traveler lost in the Desert of Sahara wants most of all a cup of water. In fact he gets to the point by and by when he would give all he has for something to drink, and that is his supreme desire.

Man's desires, however, are always springing up anew. In a sense he can never be satisfied because he is always wanting something.

Carlyle says somewhere that if you pour into the soul of a bootblack suns, stars and galaxies, he would still cry for more.

The human soul is the orignal bottomless pit.

Therefore our kinds of happiness run from the lower to the higher.

One kind of happiness may mean simply a cessation of pain, as to a man with a stomachache a dose of paregoric brings happiness.

Then there is the satisfaction of having a thrill, which comes from adventure, and so on.

Besides this, there is the happiness that comes from things which appeal to our risibilities.

Then there is the supreme state of happiness boasted of by the religionists, and called bliss.

Something along this gamut we are all striving to obtain.

Hedonism is that philosophy of life which claims happiness in one form or another to be the supreme end of man. Needless to say, there is also a philosophy which places as the chief end of man the rejection and renunciation of all forms of happiness.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

WHO PAY THE FREIGHT.

The Income Tax is a nefarious invention of the Devil. There is no loyal citizen of this nation who would not be perfectly willing to pay an Income Tax without quibbling if the tax rate was the same upon all incomes large and small. No other form of taxation was ever suggested as unequal as that of the Income Tax. A man's real estate is appraised. These appraisements are based upon the market value of the real estate. The tax rate upon the valuation is the same, no matter whether the man's property is worth a million dollars, or a thousand dollars. It is entirely different concerning the Income Tax. If the "poor fish" can only make a thousand a year, he doesn't pay any income tax. He is not assessed. If he happens to make a million dollars a year, the cry is "Take it all if possible." At least, that has been the attitude of Congress.

This invention of his Satanic Majesty has produced more money for the Government than any other tax that was ever devised. It almost pays the expenses of the National Government. But when one per cent of the tax payers of the Nation or one-seventh of the whole population of America pays almost forty per cent. of the cost of government; there is "something rotten in Denmark." The figures of the 1924 individual tax returns have been tabulated, and the result of that tabulation is now available. It shows the following facts.

In 1924 seven and a half million individuals paid an Income Tax. This is about seven per cent. of the population of the nation. These individuals report a net income of more than twenty five billion dollars. However, 68,000 of these tax payers paid upon net incomes, ranging from $25,000 to $1,000,000 annually, eighteen per cent of their net income to Uncle Sam. They paid in round figures a half billion dollars in taxes. About six and a half million of the tax payers, or ninety per cent of the whole number, paid on incomes of less than $5,000, and only paid three tenths of one per cent. of their net incomes.

About 600,000 tax payers paid a two per cent. tax on their incomes of from five to twenty five thousand dollars. There were seventy five tax payers, who paid thirty per cent. of their income, on incomes of more than a million dollars a year. Granted that there are more than one hundred million residents, citizens of this nation, it will be seen that a little body of less than one million people practically paid the cost of government.

Generally the man who pays for the good things we enjoy, is worthy of commendation. When he desires something that will not hurt anybody particularly, he is permitted to have it. Is it so in these United States? Not at all. The man who pays is never through paying. The man who receives always has his hand out for more. The ninety nine and more odd millions of population may be very well pleased that their very good Government is paid for by less than a million other citizens, but they do not show their gratitude, except by cursing the rich, and hamstringing the rich man whenever they can.

Perhaps the picture is not as bad as I paint it, but it often seems that way. There are many intelligent high spirited and generous hearted people among the ninety nine million, but they do not take as much interest in the affairs of Government as they should. They are never willing to do jury duty. They never go to the polls to vote. They do not see to it that good men and true are chosen to direct the affairs of the Nation, and are too ready at all times to criticize the incompetence of public offices.

If this Nation is going to endure on the face of the Earth, the great mass of citizenry must wake up.

POEMS I LOVE

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"On Silent Wings," by Marion Couthouy Smith.

This fine sonnet appeared in Harper's Magazine. It bears the impress of genius poetry, I think, despite those contend that little of worth is published in our periodicals. Miss Smith has been a prolific versifier. Sometimes her work is uneven, and she is too apt to choose her themes from the day's news, from those current events which, evanescent themselves, are not the stuff of which enduring poetry is made. But this is different. At her best, Miss Smith is to be reckoned with among contemporary poets.

There is a flock of weary birds, that go
Not south, but westward, with the dying days;
They fly in silence through the twilight ways,
Sounding no call of joy, no cry of woe.

One after one, like some thin river's flow,
The line goes on, athwart the morning rays,
Through the clear noonday, or the stormy haze,
Still winging toward oblivion, mute and slow.

No eyes shall follow them with kindling sight,
And none shall know the seas where they are tost,
When their spent pinions shall at last be furled
From the long striving of their hopeless flight;
For these are loves denied, and friendships lost,
And all the unwanted treasures of the world.

Arrest Suspect In Dual Murder

Farmhand Is Accused Of Double Murder Near Steubenville, Ohio

CRIMES COMMITTED MORE THAN YEAR AGO

(International News Service)

CANTON, O., Nov. 22.—William Bowser, farmhand, charged with the murder of Nellie Hernon and her brother on a farm near Steubenville last March 2, arrested in the Union Mission here, today was back in Jefferson county jail.

Bowser, charged by detectives here with committing the crimes, denied his guilt.

"I didn't do it", he repeated monotonously to every question put to him concerning the slayings.

Bowser is charged with having killed Miss Hernon and then criminally assaulting the body after death and with having hung the body to a rafter. He is charged, also, with having killed her brother with a mattox, striking him down from behind. The bodies were found two days after the killings.

Bowser told Canton detectives he had cashed his pay check at a butcher shop in Randall, near the scene of the murders, and then having bought a suit of underwear at a store, changing his underclothing on the outskirts of the village. The discarded underwear was found, covered with blood, by Jefferson county authorities.

The prisoner said he had worked on various farms in Ohio and Indiana since March. He recently worked on a farm near Dalton, about two miles west of this city, and came into Canton Saturday night. He had little money and sought cheap lodgings at the Union Mission.

Police here had a tip he was in the city and three policemen were sent to arrest him Sunday morning.

Too Hard

There's a much easier way to reduce

Strenuous exercise and starvation diet may reduce fat. But the ways are hard and long and never-ending. And they must be properly directed.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 22.—Orders for the arrests of Frank Miller, John Albright and John Sairs, president, vice president and secretary, respectively, of the Charleroi Moose Club, were to be issued at the office of John D. Pennington, prohibition administrator, here today following the arrest of two employes of the club after dry agents alleged they found a small quantity of home brew in the clubrooms.

A dry squad under the leadership of Capt. William Murray raided the clubrooms for the second time last night, seized the liquor and arrested James Ganier, steward, and Paul Colick, waiter.

Ninety-six members of the club, including Miller, Albright and Sairs, are at liberty on parole following an earlier raid during which, agents alleged, a large quantity of liquor was confiscated.

CROSS EYES STRAIGHTENED

Over 25 years ago I began to specialize in the straightening of cross eyes. In this work I have developed and perfected a system that makes results so certain that I truthfully state, "No need to hesitate. Your cross eyes can be straightened". My records now shows over
6,000 SUCCESSFUL CURES FROM MAINE TO CALIFORNIA
Many of these, learning of my reputation from others whose eyes I have straightened, have come thousands of miles to have me relieve them of the awful disfiguring blight of cross eyes.
And when they came they were amazed that these marvelous results were secured usually in one visit, with no hospital stay. Don't take my word alone for this; send for list of recent successful cases; perhaps some are from your city. Call or write to them—let them tell you of the happiness, the better looks, the better eyesight they now enjoy because I straightened their eyes.
After other noted doctors had failed, I straightened these persons eyes—Mr. John Powers, attorney-at-law, New Castle, Pa.; Mr. F. E. Pitzer, 1128 S. Mill St., New Castle, Pa.; Mr. Walter Woods, U. S. mailman, R. F. D. No. 1, New Castle, Pa.; Mary Jane Hattal, 75 Millet Ave., Youngstown, O.; Mr. William Wolfgang, 1950 Everett Ave., Youngstown, O. I should be able to do the same for you. Do not be discouraged because other doctors say "impossible". Let me examine your eyes and tell you, how I can straighten them. Go see or write to any of the people listed above—they will tell you of my success with them.
SPECIAL OFFER
Write for list of hundreds of others who have had their eyes straightened by me. Send me a description of your case and if I accept it I will provide FREE FARE trip to Chicago. Ask for details at once.
PARTENTS: Save your child's eyesight—save their endless embarrassment by having their cross eyes straightened without glasses.

Lowden Speech To Voice Views On Farm Needs

Agriculturists Will Meet At Chicago On December 5 To Study Problems

Discontent May Be Aired Regarding Conditions In Their Business

By FRED J. WALKER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—American farmers will assemble here December 5 for the opening of what is expected to be the outstanding agricultural demonstration of a decade—the Eighth Annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

The grievances from which a large block of farmers from all sections of the country assert they are suffering as a result of tariff and other governmental acts, will be thoroughly aired with a view to drafting a definite legislative program behind which a majority can unite.

The meeting will run for three days, winding up Wednesday when former governor of Illinois Frank B. Lowden will deliver an address.

Lowden To Voice Views

That Lowden's talk will echo the discontent of the farmers with present conditions was believed to be a foregone conclusion today.

Lowden is the outstanding "farm" candidate for president, whether he will or not formally announce himself and with a representative group of farmers waiting such word, it is believed possible he may come out strongly for some definite form of relief.

Gathered together in the Councils of the Federation will be Federation officials from every state, county and community of importance, supplemented by county agents, vocational agricultural teachers, home demonstration agents and community workers.

In sending out his call for full representation, President Thompson declared that "everyone is needed so that with balanced judgment, a policy will be adopted which will assure an equality of opportunity that agriculture sorely needs."

New Feature

A new feature of the meeting will be the First National Farm Bureau Agricultural Exposition, featuring exhibits from outstanding co-operative marketing associations, the Farm Bureau, county, state and national and products of commercial firms presenting new ideas applicable to agriculture.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is installing five distinct educational exhibits, including one showing the work of the newly created marketing department.

If Bilious, Sick or Constipated Take "Cascarets"

No headache, bad cold, sour stomach or costive bowels by morning

Get a 10-cent box now.

You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't restore to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

The RIM of The LIMELIGHT

WHOA!

KNOXVILLE.—Nov. 22.— Thirty years ago, when buggy rides were so common that the girls didn't even say "Thanks" for them, two carriages in particular struck the fancy of the young swains of the city. They were the last word in pleasure vehicles—when drawn by a couple of spanking bays.

Now these two buggies, rescued from the dusty barns, have been brought into the public light again by Charles Brown, a taxi company owner, who has purchased them and sent them to Detroit to be included in Henry Ford's museum of antiques. They will complete the types of conveyances used in American's history.

6 7-8 DETECTIVE STORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Arthur Sebastian and Vincent Legget must explain to New York police their absentmindedness in going shopping in Peacock Alley, while stopping at a well known hotel, without proper funds for paying for their purchases. They might still be adding to their presumptiuous wardrobes but for the astuteness of Detective McLaughlin.

When informed by hotel officials that the men had gone out with a $540 diamond ring while the salesman was trying in vain to collect that amount from the desk, where Sebastian claimed to have carelessly left his money, McLaughlin recognized an old "game." He canvassed shoes about the "alley" aand learned that two men of the type sought were shopping for a derby hat, size 6 7-8, but were rather difficult to please.

The detective caught the pair at the last shop—about to close a deal for the derby selected — and a camel's hair coat.

REPRESENTED U. S.

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Nov. 22.—Mrs. William Phillips, wife of the United States diplomat, bears the distinction of having been the only American women at the famous Mennsie Opera House on the night Princess Astrid of Sweden arrived in her adopted land. A gala night at the opera was part of the welcoming festivities.

Mrs. Phillips wore a court dress of white satin and diamonds and emerals were the jewels worn with it. Critics paid her the tribute of being one of the best dressed women in the diplomatic circle.

It is suggested that members of congress be made to serve an apprenticeship before given any active part in law-making. How would it do to have them serve the apprenticeship before sending them to congress?

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all know drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory disease, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Trouble Occurs As Mine Reopens Near Fayette City

One Man Seriously Injured As Union And Non-Union Miners Clash

(International News Service)

FAYETTE CITY, Pa., Nov. 22.—Open hostilities between union miners at Fairhope, near here, and four negro non-unionists resulted in Peter Phillips, 24, being confined to his home there today while coal and iron police sought the four negroes, one of whom is alleged to have fired into a crowd which attacked him.

According to police Phillips was one of a group of union miners who pulled a negro non-union miner from a bus and attacked him. The negro fled, and returned with three companions employed at the Arnold mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Company. A pitched fight ensued, during which one of the negroes fired into the group of union men, wounding Phillips in the legs.

The trouble started over the reopening of the Arnold mine on a non-union wage scale after having been closed down for two years.

Benjamin Agnew Is Making Trip Around World

New Castle Man Celebrating Fifty Years Of Active Business Career

Benjamin E. Agnew has just completed his 50 years of active business career—the last 43 of which were spent representing the Borne Scrymser Company of New York. During this period he has merchandised to a wide circle of trade, petroleum products, particularly those adapted for the manufacture and finish of sole leather.

Mr. Agnew is celebrating his half century in business by taking a trip around the world, having left New York on October 14 by the S. S. Carinthia. On this trip he will pass through the Panama Canal, making ports of call at Los Angeles, Hawaiian Islands and all countries of interest in the southern hemisphere, finally returning via the Suez Canal on March 18, 1927 to Southampton. From this point Mr. Agnew's plans will be dictated by his pleasure.

Mr. Agnew was born in Quakertown, Pa., in 1856, son of J. Smith Agnew and Henrietta Betts Agnew, who shortly after his birth located and lived the remainder of their lives in New Castle.

Although Mr. Agnew's business carried him throughout the eastern states, England and other parts of the world he always maintained his home with his mother and later with his sister Elizabeth M. Agnew on Neshannock avenue, New Castle, Pa., until the latter's death.

He now makes his home with Mary E. and William Agnew at 111 East Grant street, New Castle. His interest and friendly appreciation was always maintained in his home town.

Joyce was the third husband of Peggy Upton Archer Hopkins Joyce Morner. He was divorced from her in 1921 following a hotly-contested court action. Later Peggy married Count Morner, but this romance also terminated in the divorce courts, a decree having been granted her last spring in Paris.

Phillips Family Plans To Remain In Washington

By GEORGE H. MANNING, (Washington Correspondent Of The News).

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22.—Congressman Thomas W. Phillips Jr.'s beautiful home in Sixteenth street, "the Avenue of the Presidents," will not be vacant when his term as congressman from the 26th Pennsylvania District expires next March.

It was learned here today that the Phillips family will continue to maintain their home here, which they bought last summer, and Mrs. Phillips will spend much of the winter social season here. The younger children are in school here, and will doubtless continue to go to school here.

In the meanwhile, Congressman Phillips is completing a magnificent estate nine miles south of Butler on the Pittsburgh boulevard. Rumor has reached Washington that this will be one of the most beautiful country homes in Western Pennsylvania.

Then, there is the Butler home, a beautiful place. All three homes will be maintained for the Phillips family.

"Bedad!" replied Mike, "Sure, an' that's foine. But did I iver tell you about my uncle at Ballycluna?"

"I don't remember," replied Pat.

"Well, said Mike, "he's got a gold medal for five miles an' one for ten miles, two sets of carvers for cycling, a silver medal for swimming, two cups for wrestling an' badges for boxing an' rowing!"

"Begorra," said Pat, "he must be a wonderful athlete, indade!"

"Shure, an' he's no athlete at all, at all," came the reply. "He kapes a pawnshop!"

CRIPPLED BY PAINFUL SWELLING IN HIS LEG

Trouble gone after few applications of simple remedy

As he came in from work in the evening, a garage worker of Shreveport, La., felt a pain in his left leg above the ankle, and the next morning it was badly swollen and worried him when walking.

"I applied Sloan's Liniment to it that night," he writes, "and the pain nearly all left. I applied it again and the next day the swelling was all gone. For all aches and pains I find nothing to beat Sloan's Liniment. I keep a bottle in the garage where I work."

Sloan's gets results because it stirs up the body's own powers to heal itself. Just pat it on, and at once you can feel the fresh blood tingling through the sick tissues. Inflammation, swelling, stiffness, pain, begin to give way at once.

None of the valuable parts are removed from Mother's Oats

Child health specialists are emphasizing the importance of the whole grains more and more. They say that for children especially the highly-refined cereals are lacking in much that is needed.

That is one reason Mother's Oats is such a valuable food for little children.

For the tender bran covering of the oat is left on, supplying just the roughage needed. With milk, it provides vitamins and minerals too—now known to be essential for sound, normal growth.

50 years of experience have taught the careful millers of Mother's Oats how to select the cream of the oats crop—how to prepare it without removing any of the valuable parts—how to make it finer, smoother, and always the same.

New Castle Facilities Best Ever Offered For State S. S. Convention

New Castle has the best auditorium facilities for a large state Sabbath school association convention that we have ever had, and next year's convention will be the largest of its kind ever held in the state of Pennsylvania", was the statement made by Walter E. Myers, general secretary, Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, after being shown through the mammoth Scottish Rite Cathedral. "Heretofore", Mr. Myers continued, "we have always been cramped for room for our general sessions, but this will certainly not be the case when we come to New Castle October 12, 13 and 14, 1927".

In addition to being shown through the Cathedral by Association President Percy L. Craig of this city and others, Walter E. Myers was also shown the other features of the city, especially the church facilities. It was Mr. Myers' opinion that four or five churches would be needed in addition to the Cathedral, in order to hold departmental conferences.

A meeting composed of representatives from the Ministerial Association, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, Sabbath school superintendents, New Castle district of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association and the executive committee of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, was held at the parlor of the Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening at 7:30. At this meeting Percy L. Craig gave a glimpse of the program for next year's state convention which would, he stated, contain the strongest and outstanding Sabbath school leaders, not only of this country, but of the world.

The state association general secretary, Walter E. Myers, gave an outline of just what would be required of Lawrence county for the entertainment of the convention. He estimated that from 1,200 to 1,500 homes of the city would need to be thrown open for the entertainment of delegates.

He further stated that every city where such convention had been entertained, the city and the men and women who comprised the city, received a spiritual blessing and that he was sure that this would be the case when the convention came to New Castle next year.

Clarence A. Patterson, president of the New Castle district, expressed the belief that more than enough hospitable homes of the Christian people of New Castle would be thrown open for the entertainment of the convention, and County President Robert M. Strickler Jr., who presided, stated that Lawrence county would furnish at least 1,000 delegates for the convention, and that Butler, Beaver and Mercer—the adjoining counties—would furnish an additional 500.

It was stressed by Mr. Craig and others at the meeting that the dates October 12, 13, 14 must be stressed so that there would be no conflicting meetings at this time. Accordingly, all organizations are urged to keep these dates in mind so that the big state convention can have a clear track.

Police Records For the Past Few Years Are Shattered Sunday Morning

Former days were recalled and records for the past few years shattered Sunday morning about 1:30 o'clock, when Officers Logan, Samuels, Steiner, Dukes and Criswell raided the poolroom of John Marino, 1061 Butler avenue, on finding that gambling was in progress. Marino and twenty-eight visitors were arrested, every person in the place falling into the hands of the police. Marino paid a fine of $50 as the keeper of a disorderly house and the twenty-eight visitors paid fines of $10 each on charges of being visitors in a disorderly house.

Apparently everything was quiet and orderly when the officers arrived on the scene. There was not a sound to be heard, until the officers on investigating at a cellar window, heard the excited voices of men, calling on the goddess of luck for various numbers, pairs, etc.

Convinced that there was gambling, the place was pulled and the twenty-nine men rounded up and taken to the police station.

Ordinary dice, also niger dice and a dice box were secured as evidence of the gambling that had been in progress.

"HIT AND RUN" CAR BREAKS YOUTH'S LEGS

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 22.—John DeHaven, 17- year-old student in the Connellsville High School is in the Connellsville State Hospital with both legs broken as the result of an automobile accident that occurred yesterday while he was returning from the Connellsville-Uniontown High School football game. DeHaven alighted from the automobile in which he was riding to assist in pulling an overturned car back onto the road when he was struck by a third machine. The driver's name was not learned.

Piles Go Quick
Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was first to find the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in 1,000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent and then decided it should be sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from McKee's Cut Rate Store and Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and will do the same for you.

SIX DEPARTMENTS ANSWER WHEN HE PULLS ALARM

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 22.—Four fire engines and two fire trucks answered a hurry up call to box 68 in the business section here to find Adolph Ingle standing surprised at the alarm box.

He had a letter in his hand and declared he was trying to post it.

Firemen, although angered, permitted Ingle to go without arrest, declaring that they often had seen such stunts pulled in movie comedies but never had known that such occurred in everyday life.

Measles Outbreak In Mercer County

Eighty-Seven Cases Are Under Quarantine—Other Mercer News

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Nov. 22.—There are 87 cases of measles in Mercer county today that are under quarantine. Of this number 78 were reported within the past week. While this is the number now affected hundreds have been ill and recovered with the disease which has raged in the county since last spring. Due to the fact that the quarantine period is only 16 days although the spread of the disease is fast, the number never reaches a high total due to this reduced period.

Dr. S. J. Dickey, county medical director, says that the disease is in a very mild form and that children affected are coming through it with no difficulty. He urges the strict observance of the quarantine rulings that its spread may be curtailed.

A comfortable home for 15 graduate and student nurses at the Mercer Cottage hospital is being built to the north of the hospital building. The structure is ready for the plasterers. It is hoped to occupy it by the first of the year. On the ground floor is the office and living quarters of the supervising nurse and the rooms of the graduate nurses of which there are four. The second floor with its nine bedrooms will be the home of the students in nursing. Sun parlors on each floor, bath rooms and a huge living room sum the equipment of this home that will cost $25,000.

The removal of the nurses to their home will release for use of patients in the hospital seven bedrooms that can be made into 10 hospital rooms. This would give the hospital a 60-bed capacity, a number toward which its reputation is fast taking it. There will be hardwood floors in all rooms. The bedrooms are 9 by 15 feet.

Location of a new well for drilling on the farm of W. G. Christley has already taken place by the group of landowners of Springfield township and Mercer business men who are interested in the development of the territory there. The well on the M. B. Orr farm was drilled into the second sand following the securing of a good gas well in the Berea sand at 600 feet. This was reached at a depth of 829 feet and gas found in the second sand as well. The well will be tubed today and accurately measured. It will reach a volume of 200,000 feet a day, its owners believe.

Drilling operations on the second well will start at once. The owners are now convinced that they had within their lease holdings a pocket of gas that is valuable. There will be no effort to market the gas until after this next well is drilled and a more definite estimate of what quantity of gas they will have determined. It is said that no difficulty will be entertained selling it. Already overtures from big companies have been made. As the company associates are Mercer men there is a feeling that if a good field is developed Mercer should have the benefit of it.

To open the basketball season at Fredonia on December 17 is the present intentions of Coach Stanley Patterson of Mercer high who has a squad of 25 players working out. Sharon plays here on New Year's eve. Patterson is expecting to book a strong team for the holiday season. Of the players in uniform six are veterans—Vath, Bartoo, Rhodes, Blatt, Broadbent and Stowe. There is any quantity of good material among the beginners who are out, says Patterson, who is encouraged to make a special effort from the interest taken by the student body. Patterson is an experienced man. He has played and officiated the game for years now.

ROCKY GROVE—The Rev. P. N. Osborne, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, has resigned, effective January 1, 1927, in order to become chaplain of the Rockview penitentiary at Bellefonte, Pa.

KANE — Drillers are cutting through the flint rock at a depth of 5,332 feet here after which it is expected that gas in paying quantities will be found.

GETTYSBURG—A Moose Lodge recently was instituted here with eighty charter members. The work was conferred on the charter members and the instituting of the lodge was done by the degree team from Carlisle lodge.

LEWISTOWN — Doctors from Philadelphia will hold a clinic here December 2, for crippled children of Mifflin county. The clinic, the second of its kind, will be conducted in the local Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the Lewistown Rotary Club.

YORK — Children of Horace Strine, Lewis Strubinger and Harry Saltzgiver, volunteer firemen killed in 1904 fighting a fire which destroyed the York Carriage Company's plant, soon will receive a sum of money which has been accumulating twenty-two years. The fund was raised by subscription and an amount payed to the widows, the remainder placed on deposit to be divided among the children of the victims when they become of age.

YORK — Amanda, Zeigler, 70, of this city has laid claim to the "mother of bobbed hair in America. She declares that she has had her hair shorn short for more than a half century. Besides wearing her hair short the aged woman has followed other manish styles by wearing a celluloid collar and black bow tie.

LANCASTER—According to local police authorities, Ray S. Bare, 22, of New Cumberland, gave a worthless check to the minister who married him here, a worthless check to the tailor who pressed his trousers before the ceremony and distributed at least twenty-five other worthless checks. When arrested he had 13 cents in his pockets, police said.

MOVEYTOWN — Announcement that the Standard Oil Company has has secured leases on certain lands in the Beaver Dam section near here revives the excitement that existed in 1903 when another company started oil drilling operations in this section. A well was drilled 1300 feet and the work then discontinued. It is thought by residents of the section that the drilling may be re-opened.

MILROY—Congressman E. M. Beers, of the shoestring district, has found that the appointment of postmasters in his district has become quite a problem. The congressman, who has recommended various postmasters for appointment during his four years in office, having been called upon to recommend an appointee for this city, has declined to do so until the warring political factions have chosen a man favorable to the majority. Then he will do his part, he said. There are many candidates for the position here.

Penn State Co-eds Start Debating Team

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 22.—From a squad of 22 candidates that reported for try-outs, the first women student's debating team at the Pennsylvania State College will be organized within the next few weeks. For many years debate challenges have come from many women's colleges and from co-eds at other institutions, but the Penn States girls have never before been represented on the forensic platform.

The coaching of a women's debating team has been undertaken by Professor J. H. Frizzell, of the department of English, who is also coach of the men's teams this year. Trials are being held this week and after the holidays the girls expect to start a series of at least three intercollegiate arguments. They have selected the problem of overemphasis of the practical in modern higher education, one of the questions chosen by the men's teams. About half of the girl debating candidates are freshmen.

When America was young, the wise pioneer women learned to gather, in woods and fields, the remedies the Indians used. From the rafters of colonial houses hung great bunches of dried roots and herbs. From these, in times of sickness, the busy mother brewed remedies for her family.

From roots and herbs, Lydia E. Pinkham, a descendant of these sturdy pioneers, made her Vegetable Compound. For more than half a century this dependable medicine has been taken by women with very satisfactory results.

If it has helped other women, why shouldn't it help you?

War On Disease Today Is Centered On Tuberculosis

Governor Pinchot Urges Support Of Annual Sale Of Seals

HARRISBURG, Nov. 22.—The majority of the victims of tuberculosis are youths and persons in early life which means appalling losses to home and community, according to Governor Pinchot who today announced his acceptance of the honorary chairmanship of the 1926 Christmas Seal sale in Pennsylvania.

"Or present day war on the disease of mankind is largely centered on tuberculosis' 'said the governor. "This line of attack has been followed for two important reasons.

"Tuberculosis is an insidious disease and it kills vast numbers of people.

"The measures that prevent tuberculosis also prevent other diseases.

"Persons who are killed by tuberculosis usually waste away slowly and the community suffers from the by-products of the White Plague in the depleted energy of workers and poverty. Tuberculosis is essentially a disease of youth and early middle age. Of the 7,300 persons who succumbed to tuberculosis last year in Pennsylvania 4,373 were from 15 to 45 years old. The cost to the family and the community in rearing all these victims was large. The loss to the family and the community in their lengthy illness and early death is appalling.

"One of the great forces arrayed against this plague is the united local, state and national tuberculosis associations. They are financed by the anual sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. The seal this year pictures three minstrels emulating the troubadours of the middle ages who went in no spirit of self-seeking but with the ideal aims. In keeping with the spirit of the Christmas Seal these three minstrels bring a message of health and happines to the homes of Pennsylvanians beginning next Friday, November 26."

November 22, 1926.

About 70 Drivers Forfeit Licenses

Large List Is Announced By State Highway Department Today

THESE MINERS HAVE SOME "NIFTY" IDEAS

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 22. — Novel schemes have been devised by miners in the hard coal regions in their efforts to break the practice employed by some manufacturing firms of sending their goods to prospective buyers with the instruction to either send $1 in cash or return the parcel.

Manufacturing houses have made a nuisance of the practice of sending out handkerchiefs, socks, neckwear and Christmas cards in this manner with the usual instructions.

Miners have employed the reciprocating means of writing a letter and together with a quantity of nails to give weight placing it in the package which is rewrapped and sealed, a note being placed on the outside of the package that it is first class mail. The bundle is then sent to the manufacturer C. O. D. Thus it may cost as much as 30 or 40 cents for the producer to have his $1 stock of goods returned to him.

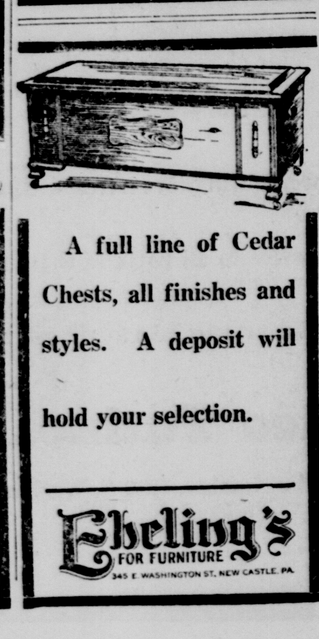

Besides this means of breaking the peddling practice there is a growing demand that postal authorities consideration action against the manufacturers who peddle their wares in this manner.

Reinhardt Celebrates His 25th Anniversary

(International News Service)

VIENNA, Nov. 22.—Max Reinhardt, the famous Viennese producer, has just celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary in his profession. The first production was a musical comedy show "Sound and Smoke" which was so advanced for the theatre goers of that day that it lasted only five nights.

Since then Reinhardt has continued his habit of startling the Viennese but with the changed result that his ideas at once become popular. He was entirely responsible for the popularity of Shakespeare, Wilde, Shaw, and Galsworthy in his native city, a task for a genius.

Biologists declare that there is no truth in the story that the "glass" or "jointed" snake, when attacked, is capable of unjointing and starting off in several directions to reassemble itself later. The stunt would seem to remain exclusively peculiar to third parties.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

"If Wander's Master had been walking on eggs, acushlas, he could have trod no lighter. Inch by inch he drew nearer to the coal b... beauty that he so desired. And Wander, great beast that he was lay still as a mouse, scarcely breathing. But never fear dears, Wander knew what to do when it came time for him to act, and this without his Master having given him a single direction.

"Not a foot lay between the Man and the Horse. One well measured spring and the Man could have jumped upon the Horses back. But——

"The man took time to look before he leaped and that look cost him trouble. A Horse grazing down the valley looked up, caught a glimpse of something that amazed him—a Two-Legs stealing out from the pass upon his unsuspecting friend. Shrilly he screamed. And, acushlas, since you've never heard a Wild Horse scream you've no idea what a dreadful noise he makes. At the danger signal every Horse started. So near and yet so far, the coal black beauty pricked up his ears, lifted his head and saw ou the tail of his eye his danger.

"Wildly the coal black beauty kicked out his heels. Swiftly he whirled to join his fellows. But the unlucky Horse had neither seen nor counted on Wander. That clever Dog just at the right second rushed out from behind cover, barking loudly as only a Dog of Long Ago could bark and dashed straight at the coal black beauty's head.

THE MAN HURLED HIMSELF THROUGH THE AIR.

"This frightened the poor Horse so that he didn't know what to do and he did the wrong thing. The Dog disputed the right of way to his brothers. Very well, then, he would dodge and shake off the brute from his track. The coal black beauty wheeled, came nearer the base of the mountain, which was exactly what the man had hoped he would do, exactly what the Dog had tried to make him do. Like a catapult the Man hurled himself through the air and before the panic-stricken Horse could guess what was going to happen was on the poor thing's back."

Shippers Advisory Board Will Meet In Pittsburgh

Heralded as a new sort of co-operative movement that preserves and enlarges the profits of its entire district through intelligently co-ordinating the use of existing transportation equipment, the first formal business meeting of the recently organized Allegheny Shippers Advisory board will be held at the William Penn hotel, Pittsburgh, December 17, at 10 a. m. The executive committee will meet with General Chairman Donald O. Moore the day previous.

The Advisory Board session will primarily consist of the reports and discussions of some 20 commodity committees. These reports will completely cover and forecast the industrial and agricultural activity of the Allegheny district, (Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Northwestern West Virginia) for the first quarter of 1927 and will also estimate the specific demands to be made on the railroads for transportation.

Rated in other and longer established shippers' districts as the "finest and most comprehensive barometer and index of business yet devised" the compiled report of the board at the December 17 meeting will be looked forward to by all business men of the district as a reliable indication of what may be expected after the turn of the year.

NEW CASTLE FACES STRONG TEAM IN ACADEMY HIGH

Locals Resume Practice Today

Coach Bridenbaugh Plans Intensive Drill For Team For Next Two Days

DAYTON STEELE DEFEATS ACADEMY

By "BUGS" WALTHER

New Castle High will have a tussle on their hands Thanksgiving Day with Erie Academy High. Word to this effect was brought back to Lawrence county by Coach Phil Bridenbaugh, who witnessed the Dayton Steele-Erie Academy High game on Saturday. Dayton Steele won 6-0, but the Erie boys put up a terrific battle against the Ohioans.

According to the local coach, the Lake City team is one of the most impressive High school grid machines that he has seen in action this year. Dayton Steele figured to defeat Academy by three touchdowns, were mighty fortunate to secure their lone touchdown victory. The marker came in the first quarter on a forward pass, said Bridenbaugh, and after that the Academy combination tightened their detense and fought the invaders on even footing.

Resume Training Today

Coach Bridenbaugh has ordered the Red and Black team to report early this afternoon at the Franklin stadium. The program for today consists of a hard scrimmage session and drills on the fundementals of tackling and stopping the forward passing game. Erie Academy has a wide assortment of forward passes and the locals will be drilled in how to stop this clever aerial attack.

Another hard workout is scheduled for the boys on Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday the team will indulge in a light signal practice.

New Castle High has not had what one could call a truly successful season, with two deadlocks and one defeat against them, but they are desirous of closing the season with a victory over Academy high.

The team is in the fine physical condition following their layoff Saturday. The various members of the team injured in the Ellwood City conflict have recovered and Coach Bridenbaugh will have his full strength available for the "Turkey Day" game.

The game Thanksgiving will be the final scholastic battle for several of the boys and they intend to end their careers as members of the New Castle High team in a blaze of glory.

Academy High comes to this man's domain rated as one of the strongest teams in the northwest section and they are primed for the New Castle horde. A victory over New Castle is the aim of almost every High school team in this section of the state.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

BULLDOGS SHOW TEETH

TWO field goals brought Yale a 12 to 7 victory over Harvard, Notre Dame ran wild, winning over Drake 21 to 0, Stanford rolled roughshod against California, 41 to 6, Nebraska shattered the winning streak of New York U, 15 to 7, Brown continued its sensational run of victories by smothering New Hampshire, 40 to 12, Clark's toe gave Ohio State a 7 to 6 victory over Illinois, Carnegie Tech hit West Virginia hard, 20 to 0; the Army beat Ursinus 21 to 15, Navy sent a broadside into Loyola, 35 to 13; Northwestern trampled Iowa, 13 to 6; Michigan nosed out Minnesota, 7 to 6; Bethany scored seven points for a victory over Waynesburg and Geneva came back with a 15 to 0 victory over Allegheny in Saturday football games.

SPECTACULAR VICTORY

TWO spectacular field goals by Jerry Wadsworth and Captain Tibby Bunnell rescued the game for Yale in the second half after a sensational 30-yard pass had put the Crimson in front, 7 to 6. Leaping into the fray, Wadsworth kicked a placement from the 23-yard line and Bunnell capped the climax with a drop-kick in the fourth period from the 40-yard line. Seventy-eight thousand spectators saw the great battle.

Edwards, Wallace and O'Boyle, substitutes for Riley, Benda and Wynne, went forth for Notre Dame and before they had been checked had scored three touchdowns against Drake at South Bend. If Knute Rockne's warriors can win from Carnegie Tech and the University of Southern California they will have a good claim to the grid title.

WARNER COMES THROUGH

OLD Pop Warner, with something new up his sleeve every season, took the Pacific coast title with an easy victory over California. Stanford got away to an early start and amid a whirl of brilliant plays scored two touchdowns in the first period and kept scoring until they had rolled up 41 points to California's six when a blocked punt resulted in a touchdown. Hyland's runs and Bogue's plunging featured for Stanford.

New York University invaded Lincoln, Neb., to test the mettle of the Nebraskans and the eastern eleven's winning streak was checked, 15 to 7. Playing on a rough, frozen field, the westerners displayed their best brand but could not keep New York from scoring seven points in the first period. Nebraska's first touchdown came when Howell went through the line and from then on the game was all Nebraska, a placement and second touchdown boosting their tally to 15.

"TUS" TAKES ANOTHER

TUS McLaughry's Brown eleven had an easy time winning from New Hampshire, 40 to 12, two fumbles by Brown resulting in the two touchdowns by New Hampshire. Brown got its machine going good in the second half, and although they made half of their total points in the first half when New Hampshire's resistance was more stubborn they took things easier. Miseh scored two touchdowns and Randall, Edes, Trefethen and Hall each made six points.

A star redeemed himself and another star failed in the Ohio State-Illinois game. Clark, responsible for Ohio State's recent defeat, and Frotsy Peters, expert kicker for Illinois, clashed. After a scoreless half Eby was injected into the Ohio State backfield and his playing kept the ball in Illinois territory and finally scored a touchdown and Clark kicked perfectly for the point. In the last period aerial plays gave Illinois a touchdown, but Peters missed for the extra point.

DONOHUE RUNS WILD

LEFT Halfback Donohue scored two touchdowns for Carnegie Tech against West Virginia and Lezelter added to his performance and the Plaid chalked up another victory. Donohue was easily the star of the game, his broken field running accounting for 12 points and most of the yardage that Tech gained. He seemed to be nigh invincible and his teammates gave him a chance to get from behind his line and into the field, where he thrilled the grandstands with his spectacular playing.

With substitutes on the field, the Army had something to think about when they met Ursinus, the former winning 21 to 15. It was only during the time that the Army regulars were on the field that the Cadets looked stronger. In the first period the Army scored 14 points and seven more in the third. The visitors also scored in the third period and with two minutes to play Ursinus made another touchdown. They also got a safety in the last quarter.

PETER'S TOE FAILS

THE Navy had an easy time with Loyola of Baltimore chalking up a 35-13 score, and Northwestern won from Iowa, 13 to 6, in a good game. It was the hardest game Northwestern has had in the Big Ten. Lewis scored the first touchdown in the first period and Baker kicked the point. Iowa bared a passing attack that gave them six points in the second period, but the attempt for goal failed. Gustafson scored Northwestern's second touchdown, but the kick for point failed.

Michigan went into a deadlock with Northwestern for the western conference title when the Wolverines defeated Minnesota, 7-6, at Minneapolis. It was a tough defeat for Minnesota as the Gophers had really outplayed Michigan. They scored a touchdown in the second period, but the point for goal failed. They lost the game on a fumble in Michigan territory and Oosterbaan raced 55 yards for a touchdown in the fourth period, Benny Friedman kicking the seventh and winning point.

BETHANY, GENEVA "COP"

IN THE Tri-State Class B college games, Bethany sprung a surprise on Waynesburg and chalked a seven to nothing victory against the Yellow Jackets. Bethany scored in the first period, after which there was little to choose between them. Bethany outpunted the Jackets in the beginning, and after exchanges put the ball on the Jackets' 35-yard line. After two plunges which gained five yards, a forward pass, Carey to Shives, took the ball to the eight-yard line. On the fourth down Hamil went over the line and Fliers kicked a goal for the extra point.

Showing a good morale, Geneva defeated, a week ago by Grove City, came back and scored a decisive victory over Allegheny, 15 to 0. The Methodists were outplayed at all angles and made only two first downs. The first touchdown came almost immediately after the kickoff, but Billings spoiled the attempt to kick the point. Geneva scored a safety in the second period and the last touchdown was scored in the third period when Flenniken made several good runs. He topped it off by kicking the extra point.

TRIS Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians, now in the wilds of Indiana, is quoted as having said that there is nothing in the yarn that he would manage the Boston Red Sox, with Ty Cobb as magnate. He intimated that he was too busy making plans for the Indians' 1927 season to even discuss the rumors.

West Middlesex Loses To Grove City, 21-0

GROVE CITY, Nov. 22.—Grove City high chool defeated West Middlesex football team here Saturday 21-0 in the last game for the local school this season. The game was played amid a driving, blinding snowstorm which made real football difficult. Grove City outplayed the visitors in every department of the game. They scored in the first, second and fourth quarter and threw West Middlesex for a safety in the second quarter, when West Middlesex was forced to punt from behind the goal line and the back was tackled before he could get the kick started. The ball was so slippery and heavy with snow that Faull was able to kick only one goal for extra point for Grove City.

HIGH GRIDDERS WATCH BATTLE

Attend Geneva-Allegheny Game At Beaver Falls On Saturday

Thirty-five members of the New Castle High football team accompanied by Assistant Coaches Klee and Thomas were guests Saturday afternoon of Geneva college at the annual Geneva-Allegheny game. The game was played in the Reeves stadium at Beaver Falls.

The trip to the valley town was made in machines donated to the use of the high gridders by friends and followers of the team.

The invitation to attend the game came fgrom Graduate Manager A. A. Edgecombe. Several other high school teams from this section of the state and also from West Virginia were present as guests of the Covenanters.

A section of the stadium was reserved for the high school boys.

Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh and Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner did not make the trip to Geneva, but went to Erie where they witnessed the Dayton Steele-Erie Academy high game. Dayton Steele defeated Academy 6 to 0 in a well played contest according to the word brought back to New Castle by the local officials.

Notre Dame Club To Hold "Smoker"

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 22.—A smoker in Webster Hall on Friday night and a dinner-dance in the Duquesne Council home of the Knights of Columbus, Fifth and Bellefield, after the game, have been arranged by the Notre Dame club of Western Pennsylvania to entertain the "Fighting Irish" and visiting alumni and their friends.

A. G. Desch, former world's champion low hurdler and a star half-back on the Notre Dame team of 1922, is general chairman of arrangements for the smoker.

Desch is arranging to have various members of the team, including the two captains, "Red" Edwards and "Red" Heardon, there to give brief talks and to meet the sport writers of the city, who are to be guests of the club.

Inasmuch as the team will be stopping at Webster Hall, this arrangement will be possible without interfering with their training rules.

In addition to this, a regular program of boxing bouts, music and theatrical entertainment has been arranged. It is possible that Harry Stuhldreher, All-American member of the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame will be here for the smoker and the game.

After the game, the team will be guests of honor of the Duquesne Council, Knights of Columbus, at a dinner beginning at 6 p. m. Dancing will follow at 9 p. m. Reservations to this affair are limited to 400, and may be made at the K. of C. home.

Three-Star Vic

By Feg Murray

Football fans who journey to the Polo Grounds in New York on Thanksgiving Day to see the Annual Columbia-Syracuse game, will have the opportunity of watching, not only one of the best ends in the country today, but also one of the best all-around athletes. For Vic Hanson, captain of the Syracuse football team and star of the eleven that almost beat the Army, is also captain of the baseball team, and last winter captained the basketball team. If there is any other man in an American university now holds at one and the same time the captaincies of three major sports teams, it has certainly escaped this writer's attention.

Vic is such a good football player that he will probably make several of the numerous All-American teams which will soon be tossed upon a defenseless public. He is a whole basketball team in himself. In one game last winter he scored twenty-five points, as many as the whole Pennsylvania team made in the same game. As a baseball player, Hanson is so good that he has already had offers to play with professional teams. He is a second basemen and a consistent .300 hitter. Besides these three sports, Vic is a good sprinter and Tom Kean, Syracuse track coach, is quoted as saying that he has the making of a champion if he would only devote enough time to the cinder-path.

The fans at the Syracuse-Columbia game will see an end who can catch forward passes like Oosterbaan of Michigan, who can rove the field like a deer and cut down enemy runners with deadly accuracy. They will see a man who, once he has the ball, can dodge and change his pace like a Grange, and whose courage and fighting spirit is second to none. Hanson is a great athlete and well worth watching.

Feg Murray Says—

David Goldstein, who vowed six years ago that he would remain a student at Columbia until his school beat Cornell at football, now denies the rumor that "He who watcheth over Israel graduateth not.'

Geneva Defeats Allegheny, 15-0

Covenanters Flash Early Season Form To Down Strong Allegheny Team

(Special To The News)

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 22.—Geneva College fighting for vindication of the setback received at the hands of Grove City last week unleashed a powerful attack against Allegheny College here Saturday afternoon that sent the Methodists down in defeat 15 to 0.

Geneva opened up with a terrific attack soon after the kickoff with Flenniken and Whitmore playing important roles. The former southern star received a punt from Gillis and raced back 30 yards to the Allegheny 26 yard line. A pass from Flenniken to Whitmore gave Geneva another 17 yards and Schachern raced around left end for the first touchdown after several tries through the line had failed to gain much headway.

The "Golden Tornado" was credited with a safety in the second quarter when Geneva blocked a kick on the 1 yard line and the ball rolled out of bounds back of the line. Geneva tallied their final touchdown in the third period when Flenniken hit center for 1 yard and a touchdown. He also kicked the extra point.

The game was hard fought in the final quarter with the Allegheny team gaining more ground than they did previously. The work of Cullen, Hubbard and Maglisceau stood out quite prominently on the line for Geneva. In the Geneva backfield the work of Max Flenniken, Whitmore and Schachern stood out quite noticeably.

Noted Sport Writer Tells Readers "Tuss" Is Missouri Product

Some wise cracker one time said that an expert was just an ordinary dub a long ways from home.

Billy Evans, that nationally known sport writer, whose daily sport articles are syndicated in scores of newspapers, has rated as an expert for some time.

Apparently the wise cracker's definition was about right, for Billy's latest sport article gravely informs the sport world that Tuss McLaughry, coach of Brown, is a product of Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri.

That's one for the book. Billy Evans is from Youngstown, O., himself, and knows, or should know, that Tuss McLaughry is from this section of the country, and yet he goes on to say that Tuss played some splendid football in Missouri before he went East to coach Amherst.

All of which is the well-known and justly famous bunk. If Mr. Evans is to retain our respect as a sport writer and as one versed in all lines of sport, he'll have to do better than that. And that respect goes back many years, back to the days when he refereed polo here in the old Coliseum, and when he umpired baseball in the O. & P. League back in 1906.

Hearken to this, Billy. Tuss McLaughry is a product of Westminster College, but not of Fulton, Missouri. Westminster College, for which he played, and at which he afterwards coached, is that located in New Wilmington, Lawrence county, Pennsylvania, just nine miles north of New Castle, Pennsylvania.

Wonder if Billy will admit his error?

New Wilmington Wins Close Game

Defeats Parker's Landing In Contest On College Field Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 22.—With a high wind sweeping across the football field and a fine flurry of snow adding to the wintry aspect, New Wilmington high school defeated Parkers Landing high school Saturday afternoon by a 6-0 score.

For nearly three quarters the two high schools battled on even terms. Near the middle of the third quarter, Neal, quarterback for New Wilmington, uncorked a 40-yard run from a triple pass and Herriott carried the ball over from the 11-yard line on two end runs. These two backs were ably assisted by Cheers.

Slack, quarterback for Parkers Landing, handled himself well, but was unable to put his team in scoring position. The game was a well played one and as nearly an evenly balanced game as one would want. The score and lineup:

Great guns! The farmers who raised turkeys surely don't need any relief.

Hunt Successor To Coach Bowser

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 22.—The one all absorbing question of conversation in Grove City is: Who will succeed Charlie Bowser as coach of the gridiron squad of Grove City college?

While there are many disagreements to the merits of various coaches who might be secured to suceed the Pitt man all are agreed that in his departure Grove City is losing its best football coach and with his departure are reduced the chances of future championship teams which the school has boasted for the past two seasons in tri-state champions of the class B colleges.

Nothing as yet has been done toward naming a successor to the popular football mentor by the college athletic council. It is learned that Bowser in all fairness tendered his resignation here last fall with the understanding that no announcement was to be made of his departure until after the football banquets at Pitt and Grove City.

It is to be hoped that Rickard will open his Chicago stadium with a finish fight between gangs.

Ben Franklin Defeats Union

Blocked Punt And Recovered Ball Gives Franklin 7-0 Victory

GREAT GAME IS PLAYED SATURDAY

Ben Franklin junior high football team defeated the strong Union high school team Saturday at Franklin field in a well played and hard fought battle by a score of 7 to 0.

The field was soggy and wet and to add to the dismay of the coaches just enough snow fell to make the mixture a nice degree of slush. Despite this handicap both teams played an open style of football and very few fumbles presented themselves. Both aggregations were about evenly matched and it was only by taking advantage of the one real break of the game that Ben Franklin came out on top.

Captain Schiek of the Union high team was unable to start the game because of a leg injury that has been giving him considerable trouble. He was injected into the fray near the end of the first half only to have his injury multiplied to such an extent that it was necessary to carry him off of the playing field.

From the start of the game Ben Franklin used an open attack and was able to complete numerous passes for considerable gains. Joe Wagoner was able to get away a nice kick when pressed and it was through his kicking that they were able to score. Early in the second half he kicked to Thompson, who was downed on the 20-yard line. On the first play Wochner attempted to return the punt but the Ben Franklin linemen were through on him and blocked the kick. The ball rolled over the line and Cunningham fell on it for the score.

Game Starts.

Union chose to receive the kick-off but was not able to make much headway and was forced to kick. It was Franklin's ball on the 38-yard line. Funkhouser intercepted a pass and it was Union's ball. Chill hit the line for nine yards and made it first and ten on the next lineup. They attempted a forward pass at this point and the ball was intercepted by Johnny Louden on the 50-yard line. Wagoner kicked on the fourth down after Franklin had failed to gain. Union took the ball on its own 25-yard line. Several line plunges made it first and ten for Union but they fumbled on the next play and Wagoner recovered for Franklin on the 28-yard line. This put them in position to score but they did not have the necessary punch and they were held for downs.

Carr made it first and ten on two plays but the Franklin line stiffened and Wochner was forced to kick. Hannon took the ball on the 57-yard line and he was stopped in his tracks. The quarter ended at this time

Wagoner punted soon after the opening of the second quarter. Thompson took a forward pass for a gain of 10 yards. Funkhouser was hurt on the play but was not taken out of the game. Carr made five yards through tackle but the team was penalized for holding. Wochner kicked to Hannon. Franklin took the ball on its own 30-yard line. They attempted to kick but a bad pass from center caused a fumble and Union recovered the ball on the 23-yard line. They were in an excellent place to score but failed to gain through the line and two forward passes went wide of their marks. Franklin took the ball on downs and Wagoner kicked out of danger. A pass, Schiek to Carr, for a gain of ten yards ended the half.

Franklin received on the kickoff and punted on the first down. Union took the ball on its 55-yard line but could not gain consistently and Wochner kicked. Franklin took the ball on its 35-yard line. They kicked and Union followed suit and punted on the second down. Hahn made it first down for Ben Franklin on the next play but the team was held on the following three plays and forced to kick. Union had the ball on the 20-yard line when effort to kick was made. The punt was knocked down and Cunningham fell on it behind the goal line for the touchdown.

On the play for the point after touchdown Franklin lined up as if to attempt a place kick. Mitchell took the pass from center, handed it to Hannon who tossed it to Cicone, who in the meantime had crossed the line. This bit of strategy caught the Union players unawares and there was no one back of the line looking for a pass.

Union received the kickoff and ran it back to its 40-yard line before being downed. Cunningham was hurt and had to be carried from the field. Dout replaced him at guard. Thompson took a pass from Carr for a six-yard gain, this play ending the quarter.

Union had the ball on its 60-yard line when play was resumed. Several passes were incomplete and Union was penalized. Wochner kicked to Hannon, who was downed on his 35-yard line. A pass, Cicone to Hannon, netted 10 yards. Hahn threw a pass to Hannon for another gain and on the next play he took a pass and made it first down. They were stopped at this point. Union took the ball on down and kicked on the next play Mitchell picked up 10 yards thru the line on the spinner play. Union took the ball on downs and after trying a few passes, one of which was completed for a short gain, kicked. Hannon threw a short pass to Hawk for a gain of eight yards. This was the last play of the game and before they could get lined up for another play the whistle had tooted, ending the struggle.

Joe Wochner, Anneralla and Chill played best for the losers while Beres, Johns, Wagoner, Hannon and Burlew played well for the winners.

Lineup and summary:

| Ben Franklin 7 | | Union High 0 |

| Hawk | L.E. | Rech |

Two "Halves" Make One Tackle

Central Press Photo

Montana University's powerful football team boasts two "half pint" halfbacks who, incidentally are twins. They are Bill and Ted Hodges. Their size is indicated graphically in the photo above, which shows them being "mothered" under the wings of Lou Vierhus, 220-pound tackle. The jolly photographer refused to take a flier as to which of the twins is Bill and which is Ted.

ALL-AMERICAN GRID CANDIDATES

"NEW BLOOD."

That seems to be the cry of the big league magnates seeking men to lead their clubs the coming season.

Or at least the failure of any of these homeless outfits to sign up any of the deposed pilots the last few months would indicate that they prefer to give the preference to newcomers in the managerial field rather than take castoffs.

Lee Fohl lately manager of the Red Sox and before that boss of the Browns and Indians probably will be forced to content himself with a job as coach with one of the major league teams or a minor league manager's berth. No offers have been made to him yet by owners of other teams that need new leaders.

Art Fletcher out as manager of the Phillies has been signed to coach the Yankees and it is to be presumed that he accepted that berth in preference to waiting for a possible opening in the ranks of the pilots.

George Sisler called a failure in his first venture as a manager will probably be seen only as a first baseman next year if he remains in the game. The dope is that he will join the Athletics.

Eddie Collins whose high salary cost him his job is expected to land a coaching berth with the Giants or Mackmen.

Bill McKechnie who was or wasn't manager of the Pirates last season has not been mentioned in discussions regarding possible appointees to lead the managerial clubs.

Cobb of course has retired.

In the meantime Dan Howley has been lifted from the International league to manage the St. Louis Browns. George Moriarty has been won away from the ranks of umpires to pilot the Tigers. Donie Bush was torn away from a sweet job as pilot of the Indnanapolis team to lead the demoralized Pirates.

Ray Schalk was taken from the ranks of the White Sox and given his opportunity to show his stuff as a big leagut pilot with his old home team.

The Phillies stepped out and acquired Stuffy McInnis another novice in the managerial ranks.

Whatever else may be said of the prospects in baseball the coming season one can count on the new faces in the managerial ranks to inject added interest for a time at least.

The Amateur Athletic Union in its annual convention made some very interesting moves. One act however doesnt seem exactly fair to the person mainly interested.

We refer to the decision to table the pole vauting records hung up in this country last summer by Charles Hoff, Norwegian wonder. Hoff turned professional eventually after much trouble with A. A. U. officials over expenses and the action of the union in declaring him ineligible for athletic competition.

Just why shouldn't the foreign visitor receive credit for the wonderful records he set? No proof has been offered to date that Hoff violated the spirit or leter of the amateur rules when he made at least the earlier ones of a long list of records during which he ran the height for the pole vault from 13 feet to 13 feet 8 1-2 inches.

A committee investigating the case of Hoff and other European stars recommended that his best mark be accepted.

Golf Clubs And Bags Await Owners

Golfing Season Is Over And Professional Seeks To Get Property To Owners

The golf season for the present year is over and as it will be several months before there will be any occasion to use the golfing equipment at the course of the Field club, Captain V. Arthur Smith, New Castle Field club professional is now making an effort to get all clubs, bags and other equipment in his charge into the hands of the owners. There are quite a number of clubs, bags, etc. left in his hands, for repair, safe keeping, etc. which he hopes to get into the hands of the owners between now and the 30th of this month. He will be at the club until that date for this purpose. It is desired that the owners get the same at once for their own convenience and the safe guarding of their own property against possible loss or mislaying of the same.

Postpone Meeting On Bridge Rates

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 22.—A joint meeting of commissioners of Fayette and Green counties to determine toll rates on the New Masontown bridge joining the two counties which was to have been held at the offices of the Farris Construction company here has been indefinitely postponed, John Farris, president of the company announced today.

Failure of the two commissions to make the necessary arrangements caused the postponement Farris said.

The commissiners originally planned to examine toll rates of various bridges throughout the two counties and agree upon an equitable rate for the Masontown bridge now nearing completion.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

Cornell offers its captain, Emerson Carey, Jr., as an All-American possibility. He looms as one of the outstanding guards of the year, showing his calibre in a season that has none too bright for the Ithaca team.

It is said of Carey that he not only smashes up the opposing lines with regularity but leads his own backfield into the open territory. He is an inspiring player and in addition is a goal kicking specialist, having booted goals from touchdown for three years without a miss. He is now the leading scorers in the east although he has scored no touchdowns to date.

Careys sterling play helped Cornell nose out a 24 to 23 victory over Dartmouth recently and saved an otherwise gloomly season.

Smith, right guard with Brown University is one of the defensive stars of that great team. It was Smith who tossed Harvard for a loss frequently while the Providence team was beating the Crimson.

He is also a great interference man taking his man out of the play and keeping the interference intact past the line of scrimmage.

McCombs Making Excellent Record

Former Ben Franklin Coach Turns Out Winner At Aspinwall

Fans of New Castle are always interested in anyone from New Castle who has gone to some other town to try his luck along the lines of coaching football teams. When Arthur L. McComb left Ben Franklin Junior high school to go to Aspinwall there was much sorrow among his old pupils and friends for the record that he made as coach while at Franklin can not be denied a world of praise.

For three years they never lost a game, when he had charge, in the class league. Last fall they had the misfortune of droping one to the New Wilmington High Reserves at New Wilmington on a sea of mud. They made up for this to some extent by giving them a sound trouncing when they came to Franklin field.

He took them in the rough and smoothed off the bumps by hard work and earnest effort and made real football players. He made them so that when they went to Senior high they were ready with a little instruction to step right in and take their place on the varsity. Arthur Sillman and Tony Ostrosky are two examples of the men that he turned out.

This year however he went to Aspinwall as the director of physical education and football coach. Aspinwall up to the present season have never enjoyed the profound success that has marked their play so far.

McComb was greeted by a squad that had that losing spirit but that spirit has vanished away and in its place one can find that spirit of do or die and they have been doing and there is nary a thought of dieing.

They have not lost a game this year. In the first game Ben Avon held them to a scoreless tie. Coraopolis was given a decisive licking in the next game although they outweighed Aspinwall ten pounds to the man. Etna their most bitter rival was lucky to escape with a scoreless tie on the following Friday. The field was very muddy and time and time again the Aspinwall backs fumbled when within scoring distance of the goal line. Bellview, Rankin, Edgewood, Oakmont, have since fell before their powerful machine. On Thanksgiving day they are to meet Sharpsburg in the final game of the season and the fans of New Castle are pulling for Mac to come through with a clean slate.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

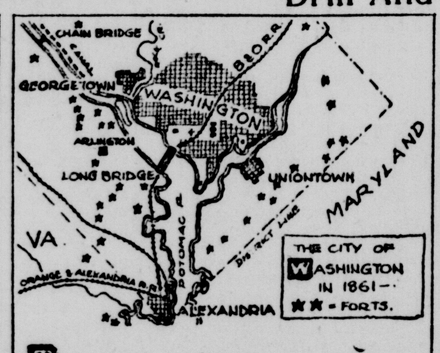

"Drill And Organize"!

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

AFTER THE UNION DISASTER AT BULL RUN, THE NORTH TOOK UP THE CRY: "DRILL AND ORGANIZE!" VOLUNTEERS FOR THREE YEARS TOOK THE PLACE OF THE "THREE MONTHS" MILITIA AND A MIGHTY ARMY OF THESE MEN BEGAN ASSEMBLING IN AND AROUND WASHINGTON.

GENERAL GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, A POPULAR YOUNG LEADER WITH A GENIUS FOR ORGANIZING, WHO HAD MET WITH SUCCESS AGAINST THE CONFEDERATES IN WEST VIRGINIA, WAS GIVEN THE TASK OF WHIPPING THIS HOST OF RECRUITS INTO AN EFFICIENT ARMY OF SEASONED VETERANS (JULY 27, 1861).

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL BECAME AN ARMED CAMP. FOR DEFENSE, A RING OF SIXTY FORTS WAS BUILT AROUND THE CITY AND BY THE END OF OCTOBER THE NUMBER OF MEN IN THE TRAINING CAMPS HAD INCREASED TO 138,000. THESE TROOPS CAME TO BE KNOWN AS THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

McCLELLAN PROVED AN EXCELLENT DRILL-MASTER AND BY THE FALL OF 1861 THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC WAS A SPLENDID FIGHTING MACHINE. AS NEW RECRUITS ARRIVED THEY WERE FORMED INTO PROVISIONAL BRIGADES AND SENT TO THE VARIOUS CAMPS, WHERE THEY LEARNED THE DUTIES OF A SOLDIER.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. — Industrial stocks were buoyant at the beginning of trading today, as the result of the improvement in the New York situation evidenced by the $24,000,000 gain in the reserves of the banks here. The motor stocks, the steel and equipment stocks, the textiles and a few of the specialties were again the leaders in the forward movement.

A brisk advance of Baldwin Locomotive to 150 in the first period, completing a gain of 33 points on the move, has again raised the question in Wall Street of a possible "corner" in the stock.

American Woolen carried its improvement through to 35½, which compares with 21 a few weeks ago, and reflects a recognized improvement in the business and financial affairs of the company. U. S. Steel Common reached 146 on the rebound, as compared with 143⅝ on Saturday.

Call money rates were unchanged at 4½ per cent.

In the course of his remarks Rev. Smith stated that he had traveled from coast to coast preaching the gospel in churches, halls, tents, penitentiaries and county homes but of all the county homes he has visited the Lawrence county home was the finest.

Rev. James M. Carothers evangelist singer from Butler, Pa., was present and sang two selections which were much appreciated.

Rev. Smith has been conducting evangelistic services at the Euclid avenue M. E. church this city for the past three weeks. The results of the meetings thus far have been very gratifying and owing to the intense interest shown in the service Sunday evening at which many seekers were at the alter it was announced that the meetings would continue throughout this week.

The services begin each evening at 7:45. There will be no service this evening.

Hundreds Trying To Write Short Stories Now-a-days

New Castle And Lawrence County Contribute Quota To Large Number

New Castle and Lawrence county's legion of would-be short story writers—and there are many of them—will be interested in reading the following which gives some idea of the competition that they are in line with at the present time:

There is a short-story epidemic. All the world, it seems, is writing down its own experiences, or those of father, mother, brother or neighbors. And those who have no experiences of their own are making them up out of clear blue air in an effort to break into print.

One publishing company reported a short time ago that as many manuscripts are received a day as can be used in its ten publications in a month. The average day brings them 150 to 200 stories. Sometimes from 50 to 75 stories come in one day for a single magazine of the group.

The mentioned publishing company keeps from 30 to 50 readers at work, wading through manuscripts. When a contest is on, the staff must perhaps be doubled. Each story is read by three persons and is graded as if it were an examination paper. If the three agree that it passes muster, it goes on to super-readers, then to editors and executives until, all told, it receives the O. K. of at least a dozen critics before it gratifies the writer's eye in the printed form.

How to Gain 5 Pounds in 30 Days

If You Don't Do It, Get Your Money Back

Ask any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. They cost but little, are sugar coated and as pleasant to take as candy.

It's the new pleasant way to take nasty Cod Liver Oil and will not upset the most delicate stomach.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good, healthy, solid flesh, and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on 5 pounds or more in 30 days. As a matter of fact, McKee's Kut Rate Store, Love & Megown, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., and all druggists are authorized to return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in 30 days.

Witnesses To Support Alibi Of Henry Stevens

Eight More To Be Called During Course Of Defense Today

(International News Service)

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 22.—Eight more witnesses who will support the alibi of Henry Stevens, one of the three defendants in the Hall-Mills murder trial, were scheduled to take the witness stand early today.

Stevens, testifying in his own behalf, asserted he was in Lavallette, N. J., fifty miles from De Russey's lane, near New Brunswick on the night of the slaying of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

Five witnesses already have testified that Stevens told the truth when he said he was fishing in Lavalette on the night of September 14, 1922, and the eight who are to testify today are ready to back them up.

Arthur Applegate, a carpenter who lives near Lavalette, probably will be the principal one of these alibi witnesses. Stevens testified that on the evening of the crime he weighed a six pound blue fish for Applegate on the beach at Lavalette.

Another important alibi witness will be Ralph Borden, a storekeeper of Point Pleasant. Stevens testified that on Friday, September 15, 1922, the morning after the murder, he drove Mrs. C. T. Wilson from Lavalette to the train at Point Pleasant and then dropped in at Borden's store. One of the state's star witnesses, Mrs. Marie Demarest, had charged that she saw Stevens' in New Brunswick that morning.

Others to testify are Mrs. Wnnie Evanson, cook in Stevens' home at Lavalette; George Johnson, a neighbor; a man named Price, a friend of the defendant, and Mrs. C. T. Wilson and her two daughters.

"Our Home Town" Theme Of Address Here This Evening

M. F. Tobias, Advertising Man To Make Address At Elks' Club Tonight

The dinner meeting to be held in the Elks' club at 6:30 o'clock this evening, at which M. F. Tobias, widely known Associated Advertising Clubs of the World speaker of New York City, will give an address on "Our Home Town", is not confined to the membership of the Better Business bureau. All merchants of New Castle and those interested in other lines of business are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Tobias' talk deals with conserving New Castle business for New Castle and his advice on methods which should be employed is of a common sense and practical nature. He has been well received and filled many return engagements in such cities as Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse, N. Y., New Britain, Conn., Springfield, Mass., and practically all of the larger cities in eastern United States.

In his address on "Our Home Town" he points out very clearly the advantages to be gained by the cooperating of all businesses one with the other, also how this cooperation tends to promote better business and upbuild cities.

A representative attendance is expected and all those who can possibly come are urged to be present.

A man-eating tiger was shot recently in the Madras presidency of India after it had terrorized a village for seven years, and had been responsible for the loss of more than 125 lives.

Christmas Tree Raids Stir Conservationists

Michigan Sportsmen Urge State Ban To Prevent Destruction Of Forests

It was proposed at a meeting in Saginaw of the representatives of sportsmen's organizations that the cutting of Christmas trees be prohibited in the state except under the direction of the Department of Conservation.

This would be rather a large-sized order for the department as it is no army and the land surface of Michigan exceeds 57,000 square miles, But unquestionably there has been too much indiscriminate Christmas-treeing even by owners. There has been too much destruction of lusty young trees that were struggling to re-forest places which though good for pines and cedars would hardly raise a dozen sickly blades of grass to the acre. Particularly there has been too much driving out into the country in December to cut trees in fence corners and along roadsides.

We have seen the statement that all the Christmas trees cut in the United States in a single season might have been secured from a half dozen square miles of growing forest. So if the cutting were done wisely it would be a useful thinning of overcrowded plantations. But that is not the way it is done. Conservation gets a rough jolt every Christmas holiday.

The public is becoming more thoughtful about keeping the streams and lakes of Michigan clean treating picnic places wih respect ad letting rare spring flowers have a chance to reproduce. Understanding the problem of reforestation and the understanding is coming fast the public should extend its consideration to the Christmas tree.—Detroit Free Press.

AUTOMOBILE DEATH, TOLL SETS RECORD, 676 DIE IN MONTH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Deaths due to automobile operations in the 78 larger cities of the United States during the four-week period ending November 6 were 676, a total greater than those for any like period since the commerce department began compiling automobile fatalities early in 1925.

During the same period a year ago the deaths were 612, and in four weeks ending October 9, 1926, they were 656.

AVOID UGLY PIMPLES

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer, if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste", a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c, 30c, 60c.
